

Leen khaleel awad

Project Technical Documentation

Project functional specifications

1. The customer user can add the products to his/her cart.
2. The customer user can make registration in the e-commerce website and login any time with the same information that was registered in it.
3. The customer user can review his/her order in the cart page after making login and he can remove any product from the order.
4. The customer user can search on any product.
5. The customer user can proceed in the checkout process using the payment method.

Technical specifications for security:

As an example of security in the website where we have authentication by letting the customer user to make registration in the website and login any time with the same information that was registered in it
Also, no person can log in to another person's account or view the order that he requested.

Link for PowerPoint

<https://1drv.ms/p/s!AlnalboC1XUtcgtEyBTr7ibTMtE?e=Y9ARla>